PREAMBLE

The Board of Governors of The University of Lethbridge and The University of Lethbridge Faculty Association recognize that the main purposes of the University are:

to promote the disinterested pursuit of truth and advancement of knowledge.

to promote the generation and transmission of knowledge with proper consideration given to the need for an educated citizenry.

and to give appropriate consideration to society's needs for expert advice as well as pure and applied research.

The common good of society depends upon the search for truth and its free exposition. Academic freedom in both teaching and research is essential to these purposes. Members are entitled to the freedom to carry out research and to publish the results, to the freedom to teach and discuss their subjects, and to the freedom from institutional censorship.

Academic freedom carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a responsible way.

OBJECTIVES

The main objectives of this Faculty Handbook are the specification of principles and procedures for academic personnel decisions, the peaceful settlement of all disputes, misunderstandings and grievances, and the promotion of harmonious relations between the Board and the Association.

The Board and the Association acknowledge

- their joint responsibility for the reasonable and just execution of the terms of the Handbook, and
- subject to the provisions of the Post-Secondary Learning Act and all applicable provincial and federal statutes, as amended from time to time, this Handbook is binding on the Association, the Academic Staff, and the Board.

Toward that end, any invocation of Articles 1 or 22 regarding a Handbook procedure in progress shall stay the procedure pending a resolution of the interpretation or grievance.

Any deadlines mentioned in this agreement may be varied by written mutual consent prior to the deadline, by the Board and the Association, and by the Member in cases where the deadline affects the Member concerned.

Only the President of the University or the President of the Association may choose to convene the Interpretation Committee as in Article 1.03. - 1.03 The Interpretation Committee shall meet within five (5) working days of the written request of either of its members.
- 1.04 Where the Interpretation Committee agrees upon an interpretation, it shall become a Schedule of this Handbook until it is incorporated by amendment of the Handbook pursuant to Article 3.
- 1.05 Where the Interpretation Committee cannot agree upon an interpretation within five (5) working days of the meeting of Article 1.03, each member shall set forth an interpretation in writing, and the two interpretations shall be submitted to an arbitrator jointly selected by them. If an Interpretation Committee cannot agree on the selection of an arbitrator within five (5) working days after the meeting of Article 1.03, the arbitrator shall be appointed by a Judge of the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench upon the Petition of either party.
- 1.06 The arbitrator shall meet only with both Presidents and only jointly, unless the Presidents agree otherwise in writing. Both Presidents shall make a reasonable effort to cooperate with the arbitrator's investigation.
- 1.07 The arbitrator shall first attempt to mediate the dispute. If the attempt to mediate fails, the arbitrator shall within twenty (20) working days of his/her appointment select without alteration either the Board's or the Association's interpretation. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on the Board, the Association, and the Interpretation Committee.
- 1.08 The arbitrator's decision shall become a schedule of this Handbook, until it is incorporated by amendment of the Handbook pursuant to Article 3.

- 11.05.1 Members are expected to avoid actual or potential conflicts of interest and/or commitment as defined in this Handbook.
- 11.05.2 No Member shall knowingly participate in any decision making process that directly and preferentially benefits the Member or any individual with whom the Member has an immediate family, financial, personal or business relationship.
- 11.05.3 An actual or potential conflict of interest arises when a Member is placed in a situation in which his or her personal or financial interests or the interests of his/her immediate family, or persons with whom the Member has a personal or business relationship, conflict or appear to conflict with his or her responsibilities to the University as provided in this Handbook.
- 11.05.4 An actual or potential conflict of commitment arises when the external activities or commitments of a Member are so substantial such that they interfere with or are so demanding of the Member's time and attention as to interfere with his or her responsibilities to the University as provided in this Handbook.
- 11.05.5 Process
  - (a) If there is reasonable cause to believe that a current or anticipated conflict of interest and/or current or anticipated conflict of commitment may exist, the Member must formally disclose in writing to the Member's Dean/University Librarian as soon as possible after the Member becomes aware of it.
  - (b) The existence of a current or anticipated conflict of interest and/or current or anticipated conflict of commitment does not necessarily preclude the Member's involvement in the situation where the conflict has arisen, or may arise.   - (c) Following consultation with the Member and other appropriate persons, the Dean/University Librarian will notify the Member whether a current or anticipated conflict of interest and/or conflict of commitment exists and if so, decide how it is to be resolved. The Dean/University Librarian shall state in writing the appropriate manner in which to deal with the current or anticipated conflict of interest and/or conflict of commitment.

12. Criteria for Extension of Probation, Tenure, Promotion and Salary Increments for Faculty Members

12.01 The criteria for extension of probation, tenure, promotion and salary increments for Faculty Members are:

12.01.1 Teaching Effectiveness

Effectiveness as a teacher implies a concentrated and successful effort to create the best possible learning situation for students. It involves continuing attention to course work, course design and related activities; and to the supervision of students in alternative modes of learning. It may involve participation in seminars and colloquia, the design of innovative methods of teaching, or other contributions to the teaching activities of the University. Effectiveness as a teacher may be assessed by a variety of means including evaluation by fellow Faculty Members and through student appraisals though no assessment will be based mainly on student appraisals.

12.01.2 Research and Creative Activity

Efforts shall be made to evaluate the quality and originality of both published and unpublished scholarly work; "publication" in this context shall be interpreted to include exhibitions and performances, as appropriate. Research/creative work shall be evaluated which (a) concerns topics, ideas, theories, or methods used in the teaching program of the Member's Department, or, where there is no department, comparable administrative unit; (b) directly relates matters arising from (a) above to topics, ideas, theories, or methods of other areas in interdisciplinary fashion; (c) beyond (a) and (b) above, the onus shall lie with the Member to demonstrate that his/her work should be evaluated. Factors that may be considered include, but are not limited to, the publication of books, monographs and contributions to edited books; papers in both refereed and non-refereed journals; papers delivered at professional meetings; consulting work and other professional activities involving research competence; participation in panels; unpublished research including current work in progress; editorial and refereeing duties; creative works and performances; scholarship as evidenced by the Member's depth and breadth of knowledge and general contributions to the research life of the University.

12.01.3 Service to the University and Society

Recognition shall be given to the contribution of the Faculty Member to the intellectual life and academic climate of the University through seminars, recitals, discussions, readings and debates; to the effectiveness of contributions to the functioning of the University through activities and work on University, Faculty, Department, and Association committees; to administrative activities related to the research and teaching functions of the University through duties as Department Chair or through other administrative assignments. General contributions to society shall include public lectures and participation in professional, academic, or governmental activities and organizations, and those community organizations related to the Member's University appointment.

12.02 Within the limitations set by the provisions of this Article, Faculty Councils may develop supplementary policies, subject to the approval of the General Faculties Council, relating to the criteria in Article 12.01. Such policies shall be made known to all Members affected.

12.03 The criteria shall be weighted according to the duties assigned pursuant to Article 13; weightings are subject to Articles 13.02, 13.03.2, and Schedule F.

12.04 Personal or social compatibility shall not be a criterion for extension of probation, tenure, promotion, or salary increments.

Faculty Handbook

Article 12

12.05 Guidelines are:

12.05.1 Award of Tenure

To qualify for the award of tenure, a Faculty Member shall have established the effectiveness of his/her teaching and a reasonable expectation of his/her ability to create a lengthy and meritorious record of effective teaching. In addition, depending upon the disciplinary area to which the Faculty Member belongs, he/she shall be expected to show evidence of the development of an independent and productive program of research, scholarship and creative activity leading to a reasonable expectation of his/her ability to demonstrate some combination of maturity of scholarship and professional achievement.

12.05.2 Award of Tenure at a Rank Other Than Assistant Professor

The application of the criteria for the award of tenure at a particular rank and salary shall be consistent with the application provided in Articles 12.05.1, 12.05.3, 12.05.4 and 12.05.5.

12.05.3 Promotion to Associate Professor

To qualify for promotion to the rank of Associate Professor, a Faculty Member shall have established the effectiveness of his/her teaching over a period of years. In addition, depending upon the disciplinary area to which the Faculty Member belongs, he/she shall be expected to show evidence of some combination of maturity of scholarship and professional achievement.

12.05.4 Promotion to Professor

Promotion to the rank of Professor shall be based upon both a lengthy and meritorious record of effective teaching and significant scholarly or creative contributions to Faculty Member's field. Letters of reference from external referees shall be required. Salary Tenure Promotion Committees shall scrutinize recommendations for promotion to Professor with extreme care to ensure that the requirements have been met.

12.05.5 Salary Increments

Apart from adjustments in salary are proportionate to salary schedule changes, a Faculty Member can anticipate cumulative annual adjustments of salary through the award of increments. The awarding of increments reflects a well-established academic tradition whereby:

- (a) normal career progress which is demonstrated in continuing satisfactory professional performance, and
- (b) especially meritorious professional achievements are recognized through monetary reward.

Since the criteria which determine the award of increments are those which apply to promotion, there will be a degree of correspondence between salary and rank. Thus, on promotion or appointment, a Faculty Member will receive a salary which is not less than the minimum for the rank. However, at other times, the characteristics of a Faculty Member's professional performance may be reflected in the award of increments but not in promotion.

12.06 A decision by a personnel committee that a Faculty Member not be promoted shall not, in itself, imply that the Faculty Member's performance has been assessed to be unsatisfactory.

18.01.1 Term Appointment

- (a) A term appointment shall be for a contractually limited period. It shall not carry any implication that the Faculty Member will be considered for a probationary appointment or an appointment with tenure unless special provision for conversion into a probationary appointment as specified in Article 0 is made in the original letter of appointment. Except for such provision as specified in Article 0, a term appointment shall not be made except under one or more of the following conditions:
  - (i) That the appointment is a replacement for a Faculty Member on leave or on another assignment of duties. Normally, such an appointment will be limited to the term of the relevant leave or reassignment. However, there may be some circumstances where the term may require a start or end date beyond the term of the relevant leave or reassignment.
  - (ii) That the appointment is of someone unqualified for continuing appointment because a person with the required qualifications is not available at the time.
  - (iii) That the duties connected with the appointment are for a limited period and are expected to be no longer required after the specified date.

Article 18

18.01.3 Term Appointment With Conversion

- (a) A term appointment may contain provisions for conversion into a probationary appointment on two bases:
  - (i) that the term appointment is made in an area reliant on contingent funding that may become permanent. In this case, the letter of appointment shall specify the conditions under which conversion may occur, such as the availability of continuing funding for the position, attainment of academic credentials, and satisfactory performance of the duties for which the appointment was made.

If there is more than one (1) qualified candidate eligible for the probationary appointment under the terms of the most recent term appointment, a duly appointed Search Committee will recommend one of the candidates for appointment.
  - (ii) upon attainment of specific academic credential(s), provided the letter of appointment specifies:
    - a) the specific academic credential(s) which must be attained;
    - b) whether the conversion shall occur
      - i) automatically upon attainment of the credential(s), or
      - ii) subject to a recommendation of an STP Committee, convened after the attainment of the credential(s);

And

  - c) the time by which the credential(s) must be attained, which shall not be later than the first working day of January of the year in which the term appointment ends.
- (b) If the conversion occurs under the conditions of the term contract, in Article 18.01.3(a)(ii)b) above, the probationary appointment shall be deemed to have begun with the current term appointment.
- (c) For purposes of conversion under Article 18.01.3(a)(ii)b)i) above, the current STP Committee, under Article 17.04, may be convened at any time during its term.
- (d) When the credential(s) specified in Article 18.01.3(a)(ii) above is/are attained after October first (1) but on or before the first (1st ) working day in January of the year in which the term appointment ends, the current STP Committee shall have jurisdiction to decide both the matter of conversion of the contract and, if required, the extension of probation.
- (e) For purposes of this Article, “attainment of specific academic credential(s)” means the receipt by the Dean, not later than the end of the first (1) working day of January, of an official transcript certifying that the Member has met all requirements for the specific academic credential(s) being sought.

18.03.3 Criteria for hiring shall be limited to qualifications related to the position as approved and advertised. Personal and social compatibility shall not be used as a criterion for appointment. Considerations of life style or of contribution to the University by spouses or other personal relations are irrelevant, unless the contributions would occur in the form of a University position subject to appropriate procedures.

18.03.4 Applications for the position shall be considered by the Search Committee which shall recommend to the Dean a candidate or candidates for the position. If the Dean approves a recommended candidate, he/she shall send the candidate a written offer of appointment, provisional upon ratification by the Board, specifying the rank, number of years assigned toward the Academic Career (Article 2.02), salary and other conditions, including Canadian immigration requirements where applicable, and access to a copy of this Handbook.

If the Dean rejects the recommendation of the Search Committee, his/her reasons shall be given to the President and to the committee chair, and he/she shall request the Search Committee to recommend another candidate or candidates.

18.03.5 In the event that a provisional offer of appointment is accepted, the Dean shall recommend the appointment of that candidate to the President, who shall report the Dean's recommendation to the Board.

18.03.6 If the Board ratifies a recommendation for appointment by the President, the President shall send an official letter of appointment to the candidate specifying the terms and conditions of the appointment.

19.04.1 Tenure shall mean an appointment which shall continue until retirement unless terminated under a provision of this Handbook.

19.04.2 A Faculty Member shall be awarded tenure if recommended by the Salary Tenure Promotion Committee as provided in this Article and recommended by the President and ratified by the Board.

19.04.3 Tenure shall become effective the date it is awarded by action of the Board.

19.04.4 Timelines

19.05 Procedure for Extension of Probation and Award of Tenure

19.05.1 The procedure for the hearing of the Salary Tenure Promotion Committee regarding extension of probation or the award of tenure shall be that for a hearing regarding promotion as provided in Article 20.03. Where the Committee has not completed its deliberations by June 30 of the final year of the Member's probationary appointment and the Committee makes a recommendation that probation be terminated, then a terminal appointment as provided in Article 19.06.2 shall be deemed to have begun July 1 immediately following the end of the probationary appointment.

19.05.2 The motion to be considered by the Salary Tenure Promotion Committee shall be:

- (a) That the quality and quantity of the candidate's academic work relative to the criteria of Article 12.01 merit the award of extension of probation. if the hearing is pursuant to Article 19.02; or
- (b) That the quality and quantity of the candidate's academic work relative to the criteria of Article 12.01 merit the award of tenure. if the hearing is pursuant to Article 19.04.

Failure of the motion Article 19.05.2(a) to carry by the appropriate majority, as specified in Articles 14.04.1(c) or 17.04.2(c) constitutes a recommendation that probation be terminated, if the hearing is held pursuant to Articles 14.06 or 19.02.

Failure of the motion Articles 19.05.2(b) to carry by the appropriate majority, as specified in Articles 14.04.1(c) or 17.04.2(c), constitutes a recommendation that probation be terminated if the hearing is held pursuant to Articles 14.07 or 19.04, except where the hearing is held pursuant to Article 19.04.4(b), in which case failure of the motion requires that the STP committee then consider the motion Article 19.05.2(a). Subsequent failure of the motion Article 19.05.2(a) to carry by the appropriate majority, as specified in 14.04.1(c) or 17.04.2(c) constitutes a recommendation that probation be terminated.

19.06 Termination of Probationary Appointment

19.06.1 A Faculty Member's probation shall be terminated upon recommendation of an STP Committee as provided in Articles 19.02.3 or 19.04.4, recommendation of the President, and ratification by the Board.

20.02.3 A Faculty Member appointed with the rank of Lecturer may be promoted to Assistant Professor by virtue of the attainment of an academic credential by a stipulated date, as specified in Article 0. If the credential is attained by the stipulated date, promotion shall be effective immediately, subject to Article 18.01.3(a)(ii).

20.03 Promotion Hearings

20.03.1 Consideration of promotion of a Faculty Member shall be carried out by the Salary Tenure Promotion Committee, which shall recommend either that the Faculty Member be promoted, or that the Faculty Member not be promoted. Meetings of the Salary, Tenure and Promotion Committee shall normally take place between January 1 and March 31 of each academic year.

20.03.2 Process

(a) The STP Committee Chair shall prepare a recommendation for or against promotion and present it to the Committee.

(i) No later than July 15 of the academic year in which promotion (extension of probation or tenure) is to be considered, the Dean/University Librarian shall write to all Members who have agreed with the STP Committee Chair under Article 20.02.1 to be considered for promotion, and also to all Members eligible under Article 20.02.2 to invoke the right to be considered for promotion. The letter shall invite the Member to supply to the STP Committee Chair, by the following September 15, a rationale and whatever material and information the Member deems necessary to justify his/her promotion (extension of probation, or tenure) and request the Member to make recommendations regarding additional evidence for the Chair to gather. (ii) The evidence and documentation submitted for the consideration of the STP Committee shall consist of four (4) elements, each of which shall be clearly identified:

Disagreements between the Dean and the Chair regarding the appropriateness of specific material shall be dealt with through the interpretation process in Article 1.

After consultation with the Dean/University Librarian, the STP Committee Chair shall indicate to the Member within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the material in Article 20.03.2(a)(i) (above) whether, based on this material, a positive or a negative recommendation would be presented to the STP Committee. In particular, the Chair shall inform the Member of any negative evidence which the Member may wish to address. If, in the Chair's view, there is insufficient evidence to justify a positive recommendation, the Chair shall, at this time, advise the Member what additional evidence would overcome the perceived incompleteness or insufficiency, and shall attempt to assist the Member in acquiring such additional evidence;

- (iii) Any additional evidence gathered by the STP Committee Chair or supplied by the Dean or the Member under (i) and (ii) above for consideration of the STP Committee shall be provided by January 10.
  - (iv) Not fewer than ten (10) working days prior to the first day of the hearing, the STP Committee Chair shall inform the Member in writing of the Chair's recommendation and all the reasons for it that will be placed before the STP Committee. 21.04 Principles and Procedures for Awarding Salary Increments

21.04.1 Before April 30 of each year, the professional performance of a Faculty Member/Professional Librarian shall be evaluated and the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian shall be informed of the result of that evaluation. Before September 15 each year, a Faculty Member/Professional Librarian shall submit to the Dean/University Librarian a report of Professional Activities (as per Schedule F) during the previous contract year (July 1 to June 30), any supporting documentation not already in the Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's file, and a recommendation for weighting the criteria.

21.04.2 Normally, the period for assessment shall be the contract year immediately preceding the evaluation of performance. The basis for assessment shall normally be the Professional Activities Report, and the contents of a Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's personal file regarding the period in question. However, if the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian and the Dean/University Librarian agree, other relevant periods or materials shall be considered. All materials considered shall be part of a Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's Personal File.

21.04.3 The three criteria outlined in Article 12.01 in the case of Faculty Members, or in Articles 14.11.1(a) through 14.11.1(c) in the case of Professional Librarians, and further elaborated in Articles 11.03 shall be weighted by the Dean/University Librarian in consultation with the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian, in accordance with Articles 12.03, 13.01, 11, 14.11.3 and Schedule F, to reflect the Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's duties and the relative emphasis of each of the three (3) criteria in the assessment of performance for the period under consideration. The weighting of each Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's duties shall total 100%.

Faculty Handbook

Article 21

- 21.04.4 A Faculty Member/Professional Librarian shall be assigned a performance rating on each of the three criteria according to the following descending scale of merit: 2.0, 1.75, 1.5, 1.25, 1.0, 0.5 and 0 where 1.0 reflects satisfactory performance and normal career progress.
- 21.04.5 The performance rating for each criterion multiplied by the weighting of each criterion shall determine a Faculty Member/Professional Librarian's performance score for each criterion. The overall performance score shall be the sum of the three (3) performance scores.
- 21.04.6 Where a Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's Teaching or Research are assessed as unsatisfactory, or where reasonable doubt exists about a Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's satisfactory performance in areas defined in Articles 12.01.1 and 12.01.2 for Faculty Members and Articles 14.11.1(a) and 14.11.1(b) for Professional Librarians, the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian and the Dean/University Librarian, in consultation with the Department Chair, where Departments exist, shall cooperate, during the subsequent evaluation period, in the collection of data concerning the Faculty Member's/Professional Librarian's Teaching effectiveness or Research and Creative Activity.
- 21.04.7 A performance rating for each criterion, an overall performance score, and a salary increment shall be proposed by the Dean/University Librarian, in consultation with the Department Chair, if any. These and a brief statement of the reasons for them shall be communicated to the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian in writing together with an estimate of the distribution of increments in each Faculty.

The Faculty Member/Professional Librarian shall meet with the Dean/University Librarian and present whatever material, evidence, and information he/she deems necessary to justify his/her preferred performance ratings (relative to the weighting of the Dean/University Librarian). If the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian and the Dean/University Librarian still disagree then the STP Committee shall establish the performance rating for each criterion, and send the results, with reasons, to the Dean/University Librarian. All such STP Committee salary increment deliberations shall be completed by June 15 of the same calendar year.

The Committee's procedures shall be as follows:

- (a) The Committee Chair shall recommend to the STP Committee performance ratings (relative to weightings) and the resultant performance score. Before such a recommendation the Chair shall:

  - (iv) inform the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian of the right to appear before the STP Committee, giving as much notice as possible but not fewer than five (5) working days' notice. Normally new documentation shall not be presented at this meeting.

The Dean/University Librarian or the STP Committee, whichever is appropriate, shall either confirm its original recommendation or else make some other recommendation originally available to it, and the Dean/University Librarian shall convey the recommendation to the President. The President shall ratify one of the submitted recommendations.

Those whose performance scores are less than 0.5 will receive 0 increment. In any event, unless reassigned pursuant to 13, less than satisfactory performance in Teaching or Research and Creative Activity will lead to a full career progress increment only under exceptional circumstances; otherwise, the Faculty Member/Professional Librarian will receive either 0.5 of the career progress increment or 0, according to the recommendation of the Dean/University Librarian or the STP Committee.
- 21.06.2 The value of a career progress increment for Faculty Members/Professional Librarians whose academic career years as of June 30th do not exceed the duration per rank of an Academic Career, as specified in Article 2.02 and as applied in Schedule I, is specified in Schedule A.

22. Grievance Procedure

22.01 A grievance is a claim that there has been a violation, improper application or non-application of the terms of this Handbook, including the Preamble. A grievance shall be settled in accordance with the terms of this Handbook. Procedures under this Article shall be subject to procedural fairness as defined in Article 2.22.

The following matters shall not be subject to grievance:

22.01.1 the outcome of appeals respecting the promotion, extension of probation, tenure or salary of a Member,

22.01.2 the outcome of a specific process provided by this Handbook that is binding on both parties,

22.01.3 a request for amendment of this Handbook,

22.01.4 a matter not covered by the Handbook.

22.02 A grievance shall be claimed within sixty (60) working days following the date upon which the violation, improper application or non-application is alleged to have occurred, or within sixty (60) working days from the date in which the alleged violation should have become known to the Member or President. A grievance may be claimed by a Member, by the Association, or by the President.

22.03 Before claiming a grievance, the grievor shall meet with the President or the President of the Association, as appropriate, in an attempt to resolve the issue. Each party to this meeting may have a representative or advisor of his or her choice also attend the meeting. If the issue is not resolved by this meeting, the grievor may proceed to claim the grievance in the manner described within this Article. The timing of this meeting shall not affect the application of Article 22.02.

22.04 In the event that the President claims a grievance against the Association, the President shall present the grievance in writing, specifying the term or terms to which the grievance applies and providing such evidence as appropriate to support the grievance, to the President of the Association. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the President within twenty (20) working days of the Association having received the grievance, the President may refer the matter to arbitration as specified in Article 22.10. If the matter is to be referred to arbitration, the President shall inform the President of the Association of the notice of referral.

22.05 A Member intending to claim a grievance shall first present the claim to the Association, which shall decide within thirty (30) working days whether to claim the grievance. The Member may claim the grievance on his/her own behalf only if the Association does not undertake a claim of grievance arising from the claim of the Member. 22.06 In the event that the Association/Member claims a grievance, the grievance shall be presented in writing, specifying the term(s) to which the grievance applies and providing such evidence as appropriate to support the grievance, to the President.

22.08 The President's report shall be deemed accepted by the Member/Association and a satisfactory resolution of the grievance affected, unless within seven (7) working days of receipt by the Member/Association, the Member/Association notifies the President in writing to the contrary. If such notification is given, the President and the Member/Association shall meet within seven (7) working days to attempt to resolve the grievance.

Faculty Handbook

Article 22

- 22.09 In the event that the President and the Member/Association are unable to resolve the grievance within five (5) working days of their meeting, then the Member/Association shall within thirty (30) working days of their meeting notify the President that he/she refers the matter to arbitration as specified in Article 22.10. If the Member/Association does not so notify the President within thirty (30) working days, the grievance will be deemed to have been abandoned and no further action shall take place under the provisions of this Article.
- 22.10 When arbitration is required, grievances shall be referred to a single arbitrator. The arbitrator shall be appointed by the agreement of the President and the Member/President of the Association within five (5) working days after the President or the President of the Association, as appropriate, has received notice of referral. Failing agreement within those five (5) working days, the arbitrator shall be appointed by a Judge of the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench upon the petition of either party.
- 22.11 For the purposes of Article 22, and subject to the particular provisions below, the arbitrator shall conduct the arbitration and assign the costs of arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act of the Province of Alberta:

- 22.11.4 The arbitrator shall hear the grievance and issue a decision which shall be final and binding upon the parties to the arbitration.
- 22.12 The time schedule of this grievance procedure or any part thereof may be abridged or extended by mutual consent.
- 22.13 Interpretations, clarifications or specifications of the Handbook, either agreed upon by both parties or ruled by an arbitrator as part of the resolution of grievances, may be incorporated as clauses or schedules of the Handbook.

23. Mediation

23.01 General

- 23.01.1 The Board and the Association recognize the mutual responsibility to promote collegial relations among Members and between Members and Senior Academic Administrators and harmonious relations among members of the University community.
- 23.01.2 Where possible, the persons involved in work-related problems shall first seek early resolution among themselves unless there is good reason for not doing so.
- (a) If that is not satisfactory, the complainant shall send a written and signed complaint to the involved parties and suggest mediation. If they wish their mediation to be subject to 23.01.4, they shall make a request to the Dean/University Librarian with a copy to the Association before mediation has commenced.
- (b) If that is not satisfactory, the complainant shall send a written and signed complaint to the Dean/University Librarian.
- 23.01.3 Complainants may include but are not limited to Members, students, and University employees.
- 23.01.4 When a Dean/University Librarian receives a written and signed complaint that a Member has violated responsibilities under Article 11, the Dean/University Librarian:
- (a) shall provide the Member with a copy of the complaint and recommend that the parties participate in mediation.
- (b) may also recommend a process akin to mediation except that the mediator is selected by the Dean/University Librarian and the minutes of settlement, if any are agreed to, shall enter the personal files of the Members involved.
- 23.01.5 A Member may initiate mediation if he/she has concerns about his/her relationship with the Dean/University Librarian and wishes to have them addressed informally without invoking the grievance procedure.
- 23.01.6 The Board shall pay for up to eight (8) hours of time for an independent mediator in any individual circumstance. After eight (8) hours of time (or less if the mediator is able to come to a reasonable assessment), the Dean/University Librarian shall obtain the mediator's assessment of whether the issues are likely to be resolved and determine the willingness of the parties to continue the process. If the mediator believes a resolution is likely and the parties are willing to continue, the President and the Association shall determine the sharing of any additional costs of continued mediation. If the President and the Association cannot agree to fund additional mediation services, the mediation will be deemed to have failed.
- 23.01.7 The Board shall contribute up to a maximum of Thirteen Thousand Dollars ($13,000) to a fund for the provision of mediation services under this Article. Unused amounts in any year may be carried over to subsequent years. The fund may not exceed 2.5 times the base contribution at any time.
- 23.01.8 Nothing in this Article prevents any individuals involved in a dispute to seek resolution by contracting with a mediator as private individuals without the involvement of the Board, the Dean/University Librarian or the Association.

  - (ii) The decision reached by the STP Committee was not fair and reasonable in the light of the documentation and evidence put before it.
  - (iii) The STP procedure provided for in the Handbook was not followed, and the failure to follow correct procedure materially disadvantaged the appellant. - (f) The Appeal Committee shall review the case. It may choose to ask the appellant to re-appear at this stage.
- (g) Termination of Probation
  - (i) If the Appeal Committee decides that the evidence gathered by the STP Committee was sufficient for making a fair and reasonable decision, it may reach a decision without examining or gathering the additional evidence suggested by the appellant in Article 24.01.3(a)(i).

  - (iii) Where the grounds of the appeal include Article 24.01.3(a)(iii), the Appeal Committee shall determine whether the procedures of the STP Committee were fair, irrespective of the evidentiary basis. If it decides that only said procedures were unfair, it may reach a decision without gathering additional information.
  - (h) A draft of the letter from the Chair to the President, with copies to the Dean and the Member, as specified in Article 17.08, shall be circulated to members of the Appeal Committee, and amended by the Chair as appropriate, prior to its transmittal.

- (d) If the STP decision is found to be fair, the Hearing Committee shall affirm the decision.

24.02.8 The President shall make a reasonable effort to comply with requests made by the Committee during its investigation. Any refusal of the Faculty Member to cooperate with the Committee shall not be construed to vacate the appeal, nor shall it prevent the Committee from reaching a decision.

24.02.9 Within forty (40) working days of the third person being named to the Hearing Committee, the Committee shall render its decision in writing to the parties. If the written rationale is not submitted at this time, it must follow within twenty (20) working days following notification of the decision. 24.02.10 The decision of the Committee is final and binding upon the Board, the Faculty Member, and the President.   - (i) The documentation and evidence considered by the STP Committee were incomplete and/or inappropriate to such an extent as to prevent a fair and reasonable decision, for reasons that were beyond the control of the appellant; in this case, the appellant shall make recommendations regarding additional evidence that the Appeal Committee might examine or gather.
  - (ii) The decision reached by the STP Committee was not fair and reasonable in the light of the documentation and evidence put before it.

- (g) If the Appeal Committee decides that

  - (ii) the additional documentation or evidence mentioned in Article 24.02.3(a)(i) or other additional documentation or evidence is necessary for reaching a fair and reasonable decision, it shall gather such evidence. ## Article 25

25. Supervision and Discipline

25.01 General

- 25.01.1 Whenever possible, actions pursuant to this Article shall be expeditious. Specified time limitations in this Article may be altered by mutual consent given in writing and signed by the parties.
- 25.01.2 Members accused of a criminal offence(s) shall be treated as innocent of that criminal offence(s) until proven guilty. The parties recognize that a criminal charge or conviction is not in itself grounds for discipline, independent of an adjudication of the facts of the case under this Article.

25.02 Supervision and Progressive Discipline

25.02.1 The Dean/University Librarian shall have general supervision over and direction of his/her Faculty/Library and the performance and academic work of its Members subject to this Handbook, including Article 11. Any violation of the University's standards of performance or rules of conduct is subject to appropriate supervisory action, shall normally be initiated by the Member's Dean/University Librarian and may include such measures as: verbal discussion, a letter of guidance, a letter of reprimand, or major discipline. Any Member with concerns about the process by which supervisory action has been invoked or pursued under this Article has recourse to the grievance procedure in this Handbook to resolve such concerns.

25.02.2 In recognition of the principle of responsible supervision and progressive discipline, the Dean/University Librarian will make every reasonable effort:

- (a) to bring conduct which could be the subject of concern or of disciplinary proceedings to the attention of a Member in a manner that will assist the Member to correct her or his conduct;
- (b) to specify, in consultation with the Member, an appropriate amount of time for the Member to correct the conduct in question; and
- (c) to undertake more formal action under this article only when informal measures have been attempted and have failed.

25.02.3 Personal File

- (a) Documents relating to any action taken under this Article, including any written record of non-disciplinary verbal discussion or Letter of Guidance, must be placed and remain in a Member's Personal File, subject to Articles 25.05.7(e) or 25.10.3.
- (b) After an appropriate period, any Member may request under Article 9.10 that the records relating to a particular set of actions under this Article be removed from the Member's Personal File.

25.02.4 Supervisory/Disciplinary Processes and Evaluation of Members

- (a) Supervisory/disciplinary processes must be kept separate and distinct from the processes of academic assessments such as those culminating in extensions of probation, tenure, continuing appointment, promotion and consideration for merit increments. Accordingly, such assessments may be undertaken if measures have been initiated under Article 25.03 and/or 25.04 but no such assessments will be undertaken while Article 25 disciplinary processes (minor disciplinary measures and/or major disciplinary processes) are underway against a Member. This Article shall not be used in a manner that might be construed to arbitrarily suspend or delay the academic assessment of Members.

Faculty Handbook

Article 25

- (b) The fact that a formal supervisory/disciplinary action has been imposed under this Article cannot, in itself, independent of the facts of the case, be considered in the assessment of a Member with regard to reappointment, tenure, removal of probationary status, promotion and evaluation for annual salary adjustment.
- (c) It may be the case that facts relating to actions that have triggered supervisory/disciplinary action are also relevant to a Member's academic assessment, and these facts may appropriately be put before the STP committee. Where there is an intention to place such facts before an STP committee, the appropriateness of such action will be subject to the provisions of Article 20.03.2 in this Handbook.

25.03 Verbal Discussion

- 25.03.1 Where an issue is raised with respect to a Member's conduct, the first step will normally be a verbal discussion between the Member and the Member's Dean/University Librarian, who shall keep a record of the content of that discussion. The Dean/University Librarian's record of the discussion shall be entered in the Member's Personal File, and a copy of that record, together with a written statement that it has been placed in the Personal File, shall be sent to the Member.
- 25.03.2 A verbal discussion, including the making and retention of a record of that discussion, under Article 25.03.1 is not a disciplinary action.

25.04 Letter of Guidance

- 25.04.1 Where the impugned conduct of a Member continues after a verbal discussion under Article 25.03, the Dean/University Librarian shall meet with the Member to discuss what measures may be necessary to effect satisfactory performance of responsibilities and duties under Articles 11 and 13. After this meeting, or after the Member has declined the invitation to attend such a meeting, the Dean/University Librarian will write a Letter of Guidance to the Member specifically identifying the actions the Member should take to correct the conduct. A copy of the letter will be placed in the Member's Personal File and the Member shall be so informed.
- 25.04.2 A Letter of Guidance shall state that it is a step in responsible supervision that may lead to progressive discipline. It shall give the Member a reasonable time to correct the conduct described.
- 25.04.3 A Letter of Guidance issued under Article 25.04.1 is not a disciplinary action.
- 25.04.4 When the Dean/University Librarian believes that the Member's performance has not improved to an acceptable extent within a reasonable time after the issuing of a Letter of Guidance, he/she may initiate formal disciplinary proceedings under the following sections of this Article.

25.05 Minor Disciplinary Measures: Reprimand

- 25.05.1 Where the Dean/University Librarian is satisfied that there is reasonable cause to believe that a situation exists that may lead to disciplinary action against the Member in the form of a Letter of Reprimand, the Dean/University Librarian may undertake an investigation, or may appoint an appropriate person to undertake an investigation on his/her behalf. An investigation conducted under this Article does not constitute a disciplinary action.
- 25.05.2 Before a Dean/University Librarian initiates an investigation, he/she shall as soon as practicable, send a notice in writing to the Member, with a copy to the Association, identifying the nature of the conduct or event that is to be investigated and informing the Member that disciplinary action in the form of a Letter of Reprimand is being considered.

Faculty Handbook

Article 25

- 25.05.3 The notice shall request a meeting between the Dean/University Librarian and the Member to discuss the matter and to give the Member the opportunity to respond to the allegations. This meeting will normally be held within ten (10) working days of the Member's receipt of the notice. The notice will specify the right of the Member to be accompanied as per Article 11.02.2. The Dean/University Librarian may have a representative of his or her choice also attend the meeting.
- 25.05.4 The intent of the meeting or meetings under this Article is to facilitate a full disclosure by both the Dean/University Librarian and the Member so that the matter can be dealt with at the earliest stage possible and so that the matter can, if possible, be resolved on a mutually acceptable basis.
- 25.05.5 After meeting or meetings with the Member and after such further discussions as the Dean/University Librarian considers necessary, he/she shall determine whether to proceed with an investigation, or to cause an investigation to be proceeded with, into the matters at issue. At the conclusion of the investigation, the Dean/University Librarian shall decide whether the minor disciplinary action of a Letter of Reprimand is warranted.
- 25.05.6 A Letter of Reprimand must be clearly identified as a disciplinary measure and must contain a clear statement of the reasons for issuing the reprimand and a statement of the actions that the Member should take to correct the conduct. The Letter shall be sent to the Member and copied to the Association.
- 25.05.7 The issuing of a Letter of Reprimand can be appealed to the Discipline Appeal Committee, consisting of one (1) person designated by the Association, one (1) person designated by the Dean, and a third (3) person chosen by these two, agreed to by the Board and the Association, who shall serve as chair; only members of the Association and Professors Emeriti may serve on the Committee. No senior academic administrator at the University and no current member of the ULFA Executive or the Grievance Committee shall be eligible to serve as an investigator during their term of such service or for thirty-six (36) months after the end of such service.
- (a) The Member may submit a written appeal to the Dean/University Librarian within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Letter of Reprimand, including the reasons for the appeal and relevant evidence. The Dean/University Librarian shall immediately inform the Association, and both parties shall name their members to the Discipline Appeal Committee within five (5) working days. The Chair of the Discipline Appeal Committee shall be named and agreed to pursuant to Article 25.05.7 within five (5) working days.
  - (b) The Dean/University Librarian shall submit a written reply to the appeal, addressed to the Chair of the Discipline Appeal Committee and copies to the Member and the Association, within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the written appeal.
  - (c) The Discipline Appeal Committee shall meet promptly to consider the Member's appeal and the Dean/University Librarian's reply. The committee shall have access to the records and documentation assembled in the process of Articles 25.05.1 through 25.04.1.6, and may seek additional information as it deems necessary.
  - (d) The committee shall decide the disposition of the appeal by majority vote.
  - (e) The decision of the committee is final and binding on the parties. If the appeal is upheld, all relevant material shall be removed from the Member's Personal file.
- 25.06 Major Disciplinary Measures
- 25.06.1 Normally, major discipline will represent the culmination of a process of responsible supervision and progressive discipline, directed to correcting the impugned behaviour of the Member and allowing sufficient time to determine whether the disciplinary action was effective.

  - (b) to dismiss the complaint
  - (c) to require the complainant Dean/University Librarian and/or the Member to follow the alternative measures below.

- 25.08.2 A Member of an Investigation Committee must be a tenured Faculty Member; OR a continuing Academic Assistant at the University; OR a Professor Emeritus of the University; OR a Faculty Member at another Alberta university. For the first three categories, the member of the Investigation Committee shall be selected from a list of potential investigators agreed to by both of the parties to this Handbook each year before September 15; for Faculty Members from other Alberta universities, the Association must agree in writing to the specific individual or individuals concerned. No senior academic administrator at the University, and no current member of the ULFA Executive or the Grievance Committee, shall be eligible to serve as an investigator during their term of such service or for thirty-six (36) months after the end of such service.

- 26.02.14 After the Financial Emergency Commission reports or if it fails to report, the Board and Association shall have a period of seventeen (17) working days to meet to consider the recommendations of the report, if any, and may, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Handbook, negotiate provisions of the Handbook that bear directly on the salaries and benefits of Faculty Members/Professional Librarians, or reach other mutually acceptable emergency provisions to reduce expenditures to avert a state of financial emergency; in any negotiated salary adjustments the Board and the Association shall make reasonable effort to ensure that Instructors/Academic Assistants are treated fairly.   - (c) a material loss of funding given to the University for the support of the specific program;
  - (d) other external factors which specifically affect enrolment in the particular program and over which the University has no control, such as changes in the requirements for certification in various professions.

The annual royalty payments will be based on audited annual financial statements that will be provided to the University within sixty (60) working days of the commercial entity's fiscal year end. In the event that the Member proposes to assign, or sell, or transfer, or otherwise dispose of his/her patentable property rights to a Third Party, the Member shall inform the Board in writing at least twenty (20) working days in advance of the proposed disposition, and shall reach an agreement with the Board regarding the Member's obligations to the Board under this Article prior to the disposition.

- 29.03.9 Where possible, the royalty-free usage of patentable intellectual property will be retained for non-commercial educational and research purposes at the University.
- 29.03.10 Funds advanced by a party to this agreement to evaluate or to secure legal protection of intellectual property shall have priority for return to the party who advanced the funds from earnings arising from development of the intellectual property.
- 29.03.11 "Net Income" means all consideration received by the Member or the University from third parties, from the sale or licensing, in accordance with Article 29, of a patentable property or other form of intellectual property less the out-of-pocket costs paid by those parties for obtaining the patent and granting, performing and enforcing any assignment or licensing of such invention. MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

Between

The Governors of The University of Lethbridge
(hereinafter called “the Board”)

And

The University of Lethbridge Faculty Association
(hereinafter called “ULFA”)

Two members of academic staff of the University of Lethbridge serve as members of the Board of Governors of the University of Lethbridge and thus serve the University in two very important ways.

Within the framework of the Post-Secondary Learning Act, the Board of Governors is charged with establishing and implementing strategy, policy and governance and with ensuring accountability to the people of Alberta. The members of academic staff deliver the core academic mandate of the University in teaching, research and scholarship, and service.

The Board of Governors and the University of Lethbridge Faculty Association recognize that it is possible for some ambiguity and potential conflict to occur as members of academic staff perform their service as academic staff and as governors. The following framework is intended to provide guidance in these situations to members of academic staff serving on the Board, other Board members, members of academic staff and administrators.

The Board of Governors and the University of Lethbridge Faculty Association agree that:

1. When they are acting in their capacity as members of academic staff all of the relevant provisions of the Faculty Handbook apply to members of academic staff serving as Board members. That is, members of academic staff serving as Board members retain all of the rights and responsibilities of members of the academic staff including the provisions of academic freedom, the right to question and criticize the administration of the University, and the right to grieve violations of the Faculty Handbook by the administration.
2. The governance documents of the Board are: “Charter of Expectations for the Board of Governors”, “Code of Conduct and Ethics for the Board of Governors”, “Terms of Reference for an Individual Governor”, and “Rules of Operation of the Board of Governors”. These governance documents shall apply at all times to members of academic staff serving as Board members.
3. Academic staff, like other members of the Board, are required to sign a “confidentiality agreement” and, to adhere to the confidentiality policy outlined in Article 3 in the Board “Code of Conduct”.

Faculty Handbook

Schedule H

4. In any situation where ambiguity of roles may exist, in interactions between members of academic staff serving as Board members and Senior Academic Administrators, it is necessary for the Board member and the administrator to be clear whether the Board member is acting primarily as a member of the academic staff or as a governor. Where, after consultation with the Member, the administrator remains uncertain as to whether the Member is acting in his or her capacity as a Faculty Member or a member of the Board, the administrator may ask the Member to declare in writing and in a timely manner the capacity in which he or she is acting.

5. Should a member of academic staff who is a Board member grieve in his or her capacity as a member of academic staff an alleged violation by the administration of the Faculty Handbook, that Member shall declare to the Board Chair his or her potential conflict of interest before the next meeting of the Board.
