Re: Election Day is 4 Days Away

Member associations have four more days to engage in CAUT's For Our Future federal election campaign, calling for strong federal leadership that highlights the need for increased investments in post-secondary education and research to boost Canada's post-pandemic recovery.

Here are three things your association and your members can do over the next four days:

- (1) Visit ourfuture.caut.ca and send a message to candidates running in your riding to make post-secondary education a priority.
- (2) Share our party platform summary on key issues using the attached shareable and learn more about the policy issues here.
- (3) Use our organizing guide to plan a final pre-election event (e.g., Twitter storm, Zoom phone bank etc.)

If your association is interested in engaging members in the For Our Future campaign and promoting post-secondary issues in the last week of this federal election, please contact organize@caut.ca.
