

This election, students
and young people can
make a difference.

Every vote
counts.

Vote for education.
Vote for our future.

CAUT
Canadian Association of University Teachers

For our future

Why vote for education?

The federal government can make post-secondary education more affordable, accessible and of a higher quality.

Vote for education.
Vote for our future.

 CAUT
Canadian Association of University Teachers

For our future

The Issues

Vote for education.
Vote for our future.

 CAUT
Canadian Association of University Teachers

For our future

Equity strengthens education.

Academics from equity seeking groups face discrimination, are under-represented and underpaid.

Vote for education.

Vote for our future.

For our future

Make it fair.

Too many academics
work on short-term,
poorly paid contracts.

Vote for education.

Vote for our future.

For our future

Get science right.

To solve the pressing issues Canada faces, we need to invest more in basic research.

Vote for education.

Vote for our future.

For our future

Make education affordable.

Without increased public funding, tuition will continue to rise, reducing access.

Vote for education.

Vote for our future.

For our future

The Solution

Vote for education.
Vote for our future.

 CAUT
Canadian Association of University Teachers

For our future

The Solution

Four ways the federal government can be a better partner for education:

- Commit to core funding for education and work with the provinces to determine the mechanism for supporting universities and colleges
- Close the gap in research funding
- Invest in Indigenous education direct and indirect supports for students
- Provide more Canada Student Grants

Vote for education.

Vote for our future.

For our future

Time to Vote

Vote for education.
Vote for our future.

 CAUT
Canadian Association of University Teachers

For our future

Questions about how to vote? We've got answers.

Are you eligible to vote?

- To be eligible you must:
 - Be Canadian citizen;
 - Be 18 or older on Election Day, October 21 ; and
 - Have proof of identity and address.

Questions about how to vote?

We've got answers.

What do you need to vote?

– You have some options:

- Show your driver's license or any other piece of government ID that includes your photo, name, and current address;
- Show any two pieces of ID that have your name with at least one of them including your current address, such as a voter information card, bank statement, hydro bill, or student card. If you live in residence, ask your housing office for a written confirmation of address.
- If you have no ID, get someone who has ID and proof of address to vouch for you and declare your identity and address in writing.

Questions about how to vote? We've got answers.

When and where can you vote?

- On Election Day (October 21) at your assigned polling station.
- If you are busy or away on October 21, you can vote:
 - On advancing polling days at a community or campus polling station.
 - At an Elections Canada office in your riding during the election period.

This election, students
and young people can
make a difference.

Every vote
counts.

Vote for education.
Vote for our future.

CAUT
Canadian Association of University Teachers

For our future

