Confidentiality Commitment

When an academic staff member contacts the Faculty Association office, they will reach a Faculty Association staff member who will treat the call with the utmost confidentiality. Faculty Association staff are not employees of the University of Calgary.

The elected officers of the Faculty Association are not informed of any confidential personal information without the member's consent.

Privacy - Terms