

Internal Disputes

AUFA is a large organization with a wide volunteer base. Ensuring that AUFA is accountable, democratic, and for and by our community is essential. It is important that everyone have a voice. To this end we have created a process for handling internal disputes. This is a temporary process as a permanent committee for dispute resolution is planned for our next bylaw revision.

Internal Disputes Process

Effect: February 16th, 2022

Expires: June 30th, 2022

Purpose: This process is to resolve disputes over the language or actions of AUFA volunteers, staff, or committees.

Procedure:

1. Complaints will be emailed to aufahq@aufa.ca (mailto:aufahq@aufa.ca)
2. An AUFA Officer will confirm receipt of complaint
3. The complaint will be forwarded to AUFA Constituency Representatives and the Past President
4. Any named parties will recuse themselves
5. The Past President will be responsible for coordinating response with the constituency representatives
6. The complainant will be contacted with a suggested plan of action within five (5) business days
7. The complainant may escalate the dispute to AUFA Executive if remedy is not found
